TO THE SENIORS:

Success can be seen best by looking at those people who are successful. If you look close enough, you find that these people have nothing that you do not have or cannot attain.

Some of the traits of successful people are:

- Willingness to accept responsibility and carry it out;

- Punctuality, the ultimate, and leaving at quitting time is unheard of;

- Attentiveness to instructions and prompt performance with a smile;

- Responsibility, without excuses, for your actions;

- Proper appearance for the occasion;

- Respect for the rights of others;

- A determination for success that never quits;

- Participation in a program of continuous education; and

- A strong love for your God.

If you make these traits a part of your personality, there is no limit to the success you can achieve. As you leave Raleigh-Egypt, I challenge you not to be satisfied with mediocrity, but always to strive for success.

Senior
Prom

A senior is a time for decisions: for what you decide to do after you get out determines what you do for the rest of your life.

A senior is one who has finally reached the top of the bottom.

A senior is an everlasting memory.

A senior is one who has reached the end of the beginning, starting out in the world to learn new experiences. It is special to me.

A senior is one who is looking forward to the future with great mystery, looking back at the past with fond memory, remembering the past and wondering what the future holds.

A senior is one watching the last Raleigh-Egypt vs Bartlett football game as a student - appreciating REHS a lot more.

A senior is one who has reached a time in life to enjoy and at the same time feel like you are someone special - a time to remember crazy memories but yet look to a new future.

CLASS OF 78

What is a Junior?

A junior is an underclassman who tries to set examples for the other under classmen and gain acceptance from the seniors.

. . . Alison Beers

A junior is what the freshmen and sophomores think of becoming, and the seniors have thought of remembering.

. . . Laurie Way

A junior is to be a senior.

. . . Chris Bateman

A junior is part of growing up.

. . . Shannon Whitaker

A junior is finally making it big.

. . . Tim Kelly

A junior is someone who doesn't like to admit he was a sophomore last year.

. . . Karen Hardesty

A junior is hopeful.

. . . Diane Neal

A junior is too old to have the irresponsibilities of a sophomore, yet too young to have the privileges of a senior.

. . . Patty Phelan

A junior is almost through but not quite finished.

. . . Mari Gates

A junior is someone who wants to be a senior but wishes High School would never end.

. . . Reva Belyeu

CLASS OF 80

What is a Freshman?

A freshman is always scared and apprehensive, knowing that it is going to be a big step, and a hard one at that. The very word "Freshman" is so blown up out of proportion that it isn't even funny. If one word were used to describe the freshman in high school, it would have to be "Beginner!"

. . . Mike Daugherty

A freshman is having fun and excitement - a wonderful experience.

. . . Machele Ellis

A freshman is a person who wears the highest shoes he can find and one who carries 20 extra pencils just in case a senior asks to borrow one.

. . . Kim Zimmerman

A freshman is being able to act like a fool cause that's what everyone expects of you, and having all the good looking junior and senior guys flirting with you.

. . . Jo Jo Longfield

A freshman is challenging.

. . . Pam Parkinson

A freshman, to the higher levels of school, is an animal of prey as is a mouse to a cat. They are the guinea pigs of outlandish pranks played mainly by the seniors who stop at nothing to disgrace and humiliate a Freshman.

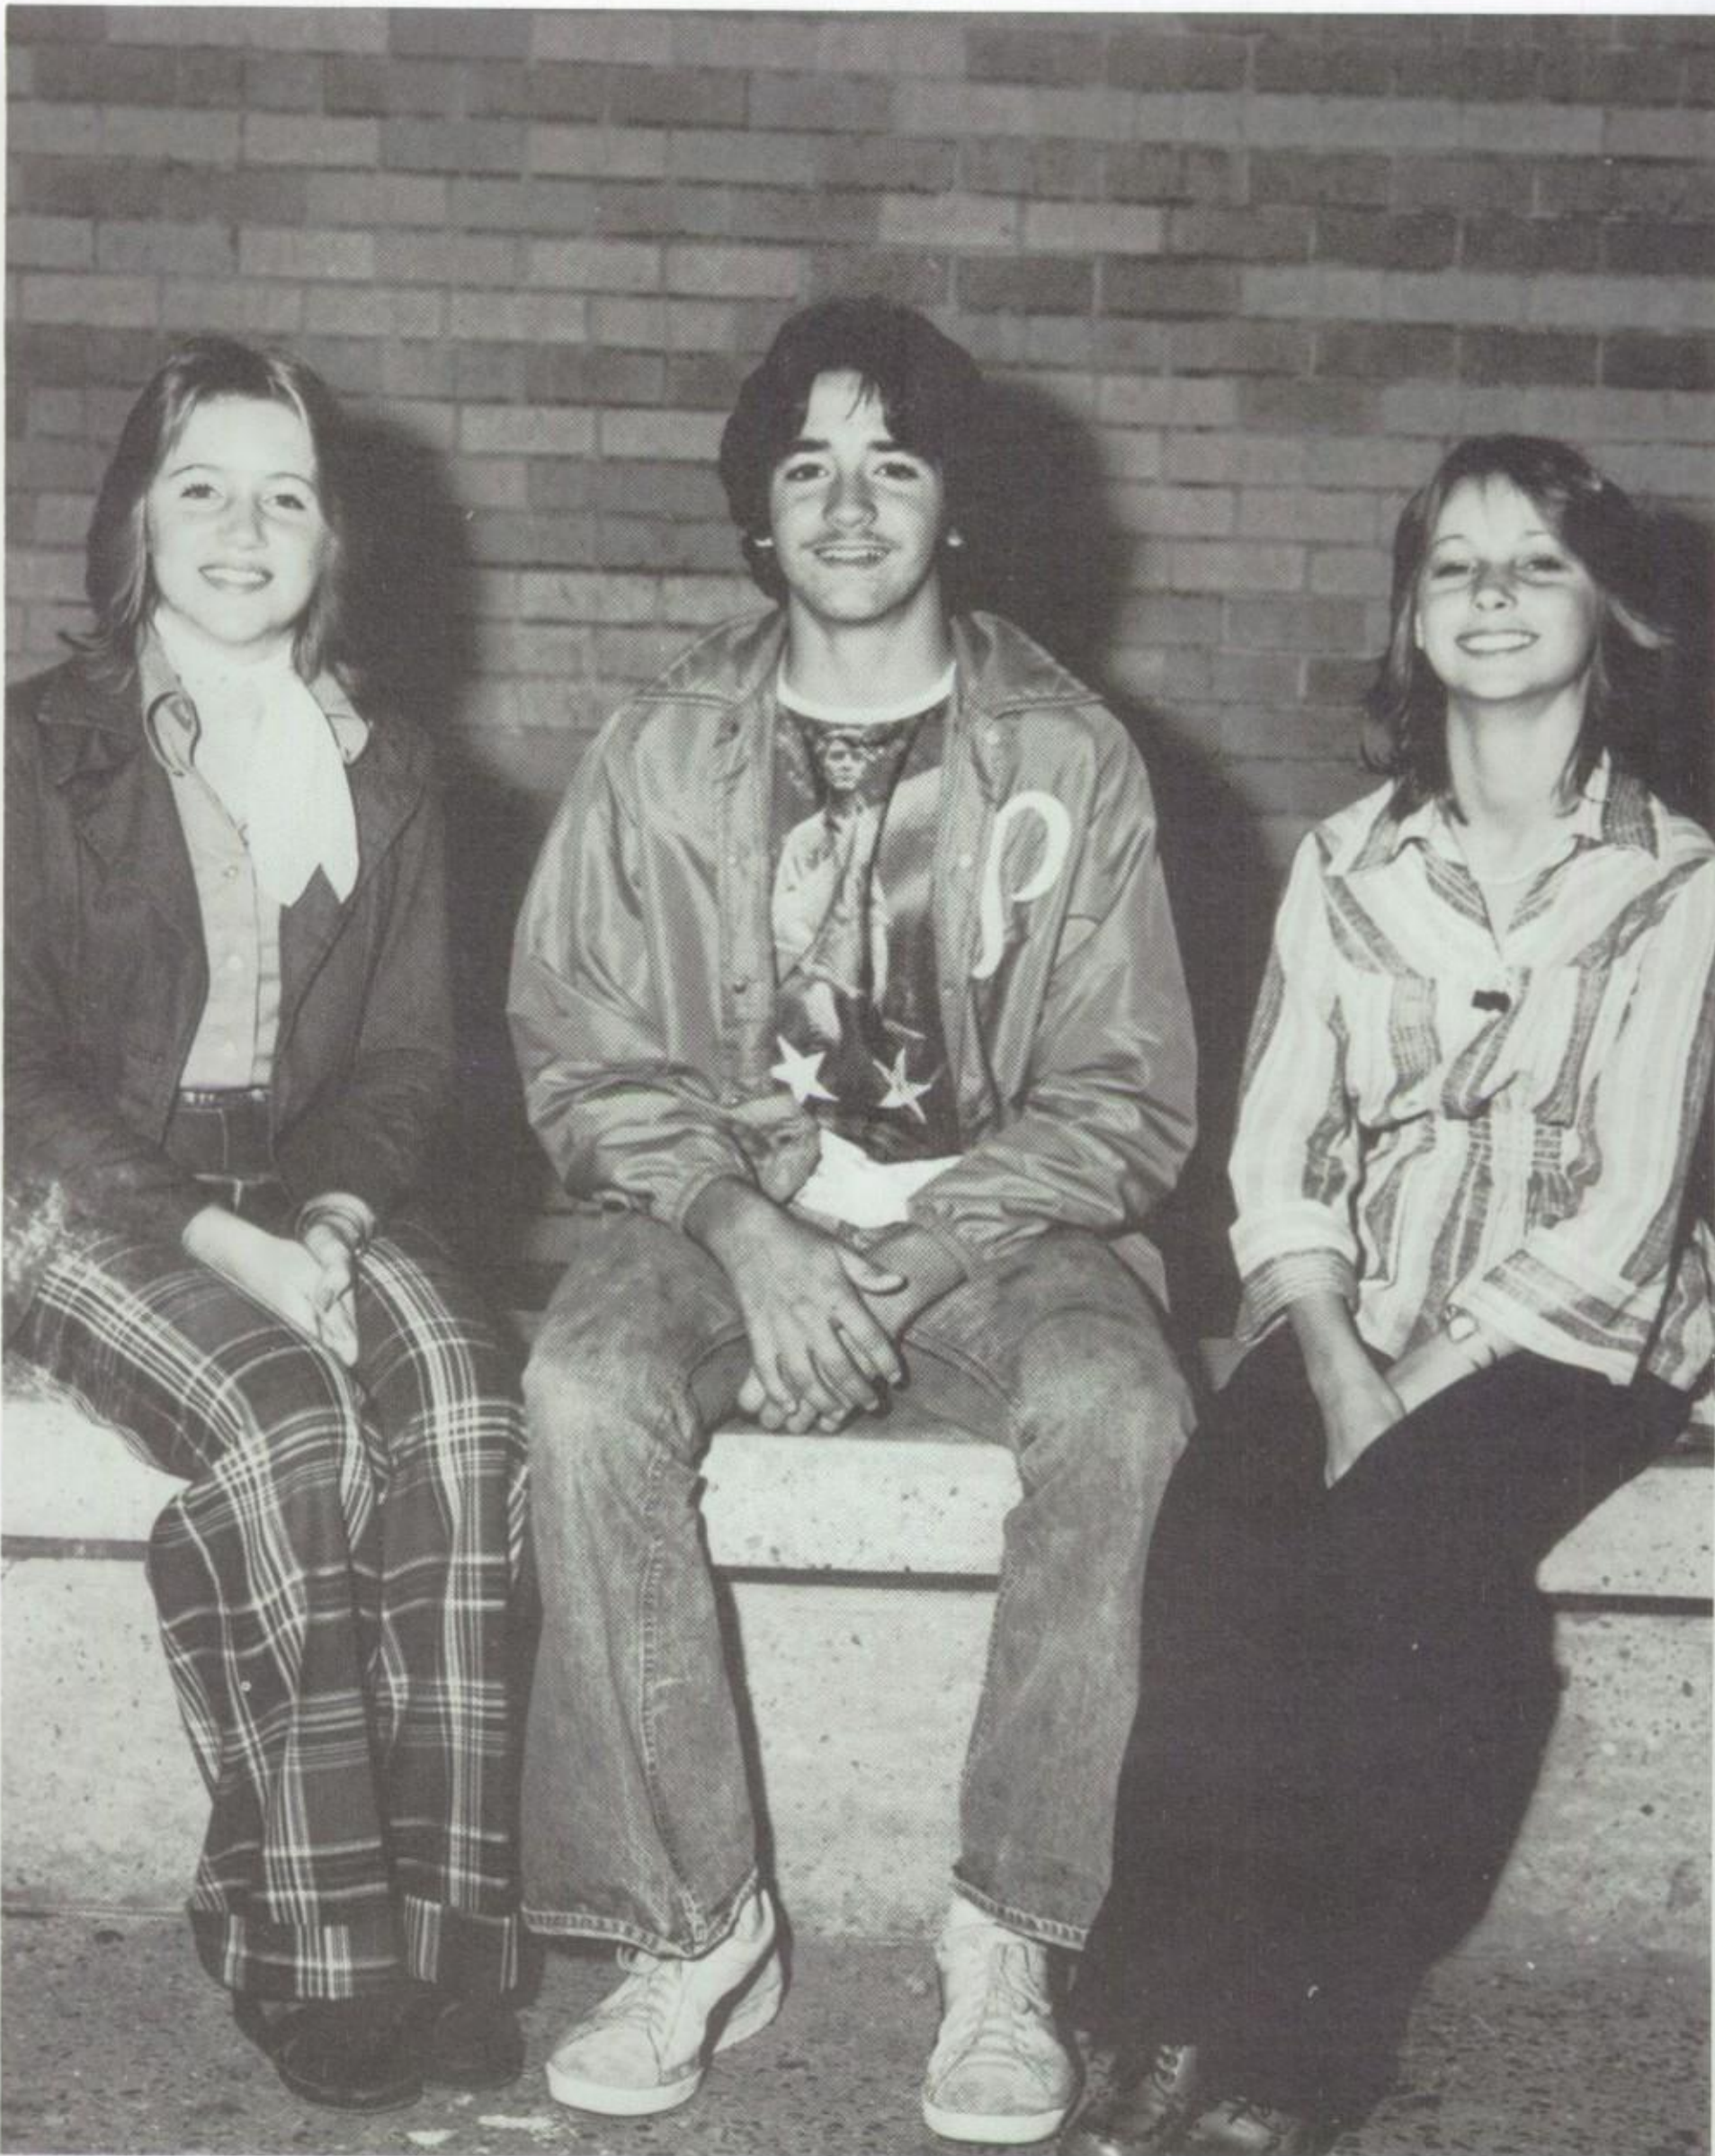

. . . Lorraine Sigler

A freshman is a student who has made it through elementary and junior high school, and one who should be thinking of what he will do upon graduation from high school.

. . . Matt Vaughn

Mr. Raleigh Egypt

Jeff Walker

If ever there was a perfect example of the "All American Boy," JEFF WALKER is the one. He has shown outstanding representation of Raleigh-Egypt through leadership and sportsmanship. He's gone from President of the Freshman class to Judicial Board President and on to President of the Student Council. Every morning we hear his low rugged voice over the intercom, as he fulfills his Student Council Presidential duties. Jeff is a 3 year letterman in Baseball and Football, earning All Conference his Junior and Senior years in Football. In Baseball his favorite position is catcher. Somehow, with all his activities, Jeff has maintained an overall B average. We are proud and honored to have someone like Jeff Walker to represent us as Mr. Raleigh-Egypt.

Miss Raleigh Egypt

Marsha Baskin

This year's Miss Raleigh-Egypt is MARSHA A. BASKIN. The "A" stands for Ann, but people of Raleigh believe that "A" should stand for ambitious. From the minute she set forth in REHS her contributions have been endless. Her many accomplishments include being a class officer during her Freshman, Junior and Senior years. Her Junior year she was elected first president of SSS during which time she was able to unite 200 girls who performed various charitable activities. Marsha's pep and enthusiastic attitude earned her the honor of being elected captain of the Varsity Cheerleaders and "Most Spirited" by her classmates. Planning to continue her education, Marsha aspires to become a nurse thus showing her concern for others. Our Miss Raleigh-Egypt, Marsha A. Baskin with emphasis on the "A".

Sphinx Queen

The Sphinx Queen contest is an annual event during February at Raleigh-Egypt in which any club, organization, or class may sponsor a girl to represent them during the three day gala affair. A ROUND UP OF BEAUTY began at Holiday Inn Rivermont on February 3rd. Each contestant was required to give a two minute talk before parents and friends who voted for five girls to present their speech Saturday evening at the finals. The next morning the girls displayed a three to five minute talent before our judges and students. Ten talent finalists were picked to perform their talent Saturday night. All the girls competed in the evening gown competition and the opening number, which was a medley of songs from Oklahoma. Saturday night the five finalists were selected and our new Queen Diane Neal was crowned.

Finalists: DIANE NEAL, CINDI RICHARDS, KELLY RAY, CARRIE GARRETT, SHEILA POWELL.

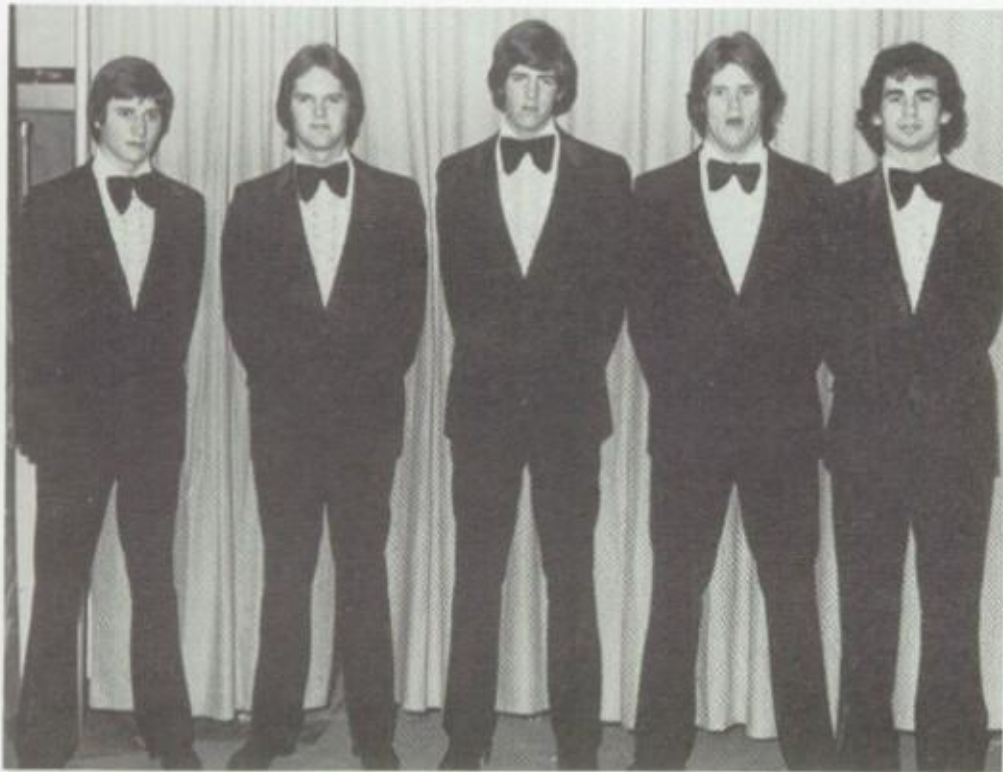

Mistress and Master of Ceremonies. LISA AND DAD.

Miss Congeniality: CANDY MAHLER

Boys' and Girls' State

The purpose of Boys' and Girls' State is to afford an opportunity for selected juniors of Tennessee schools to study State Government so that the knowledge gained may be incorporated in the respective schools during their senior year. This year, MIKE SCHILLER was selected to attend Boys' State at Cookville, and MARSHA BASKIN and ANGELA HALL were selected to attend Girls' State at Murfreesboro. The program lasted five days and included many and varied activities. There were lectures by members of the Tennessee General Assembly, campaigns for elected city and state offices, daily athletic competition, and many guest speakers. A test was given at the end of the week, and a pen and certificate were awarded at graduation.

ANGELA HALL, MIKE SCHILLER AND MARSHA BASKIN

Junior Miss

"Country with Class" was the theme for the Junior Miss Pageant this year, and SHEILA POWELL represented REHS. The girls were judged on talent, poise and appearance, evening gown, and physical fitness. A tea was held while contestants were being interviewed individually.

Quill and Scroll is an honorary society of high school journalism organized to encourage and reward individual achievement in journalism and related fields. To become a member a student must be either a junior or senior, and must be in the upper third of his or her class in general scholastic standing. In addition, the student must have done superior work in some phase of journalism (school newspaper or annual) and must be recommended by the sponsor of the publication.

The Raleigh-Egypt chapter of Quill and Scroll was founded in the spring of 1975. It currently has 15 members taken from the SPHINX and the SCROLL staffs.

The Raleigh Egypt Pharaohettes placed third in competition at camp last summer. Four girls won individual awards. The Repettes were involved in several basketball games and pep rallies. In spirit and in dedication, they have been excellent Raleigh Egypt fans.

FOR EDUCATION

SAE is an education and service organization.

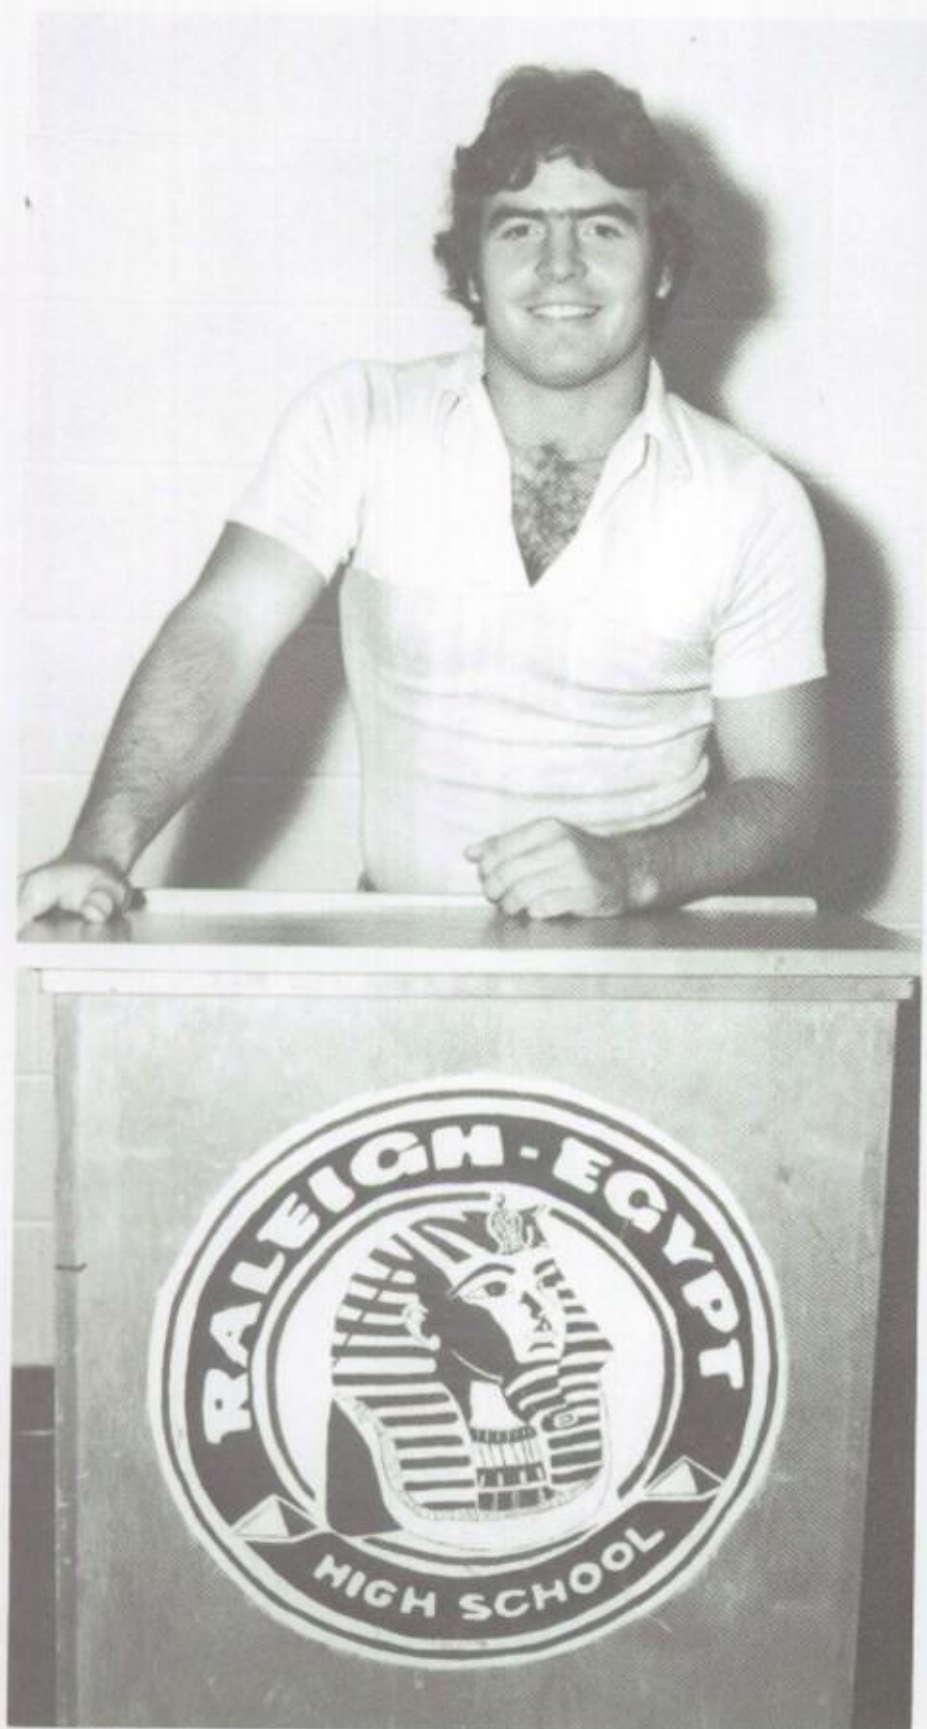

A long standing tradition at REHS is the hot chocolate and do-nut sales. Who else but the SAE girls dare arrive at school at 6:15 on Thursday mornings to prepare for this treat?

Some SAE members give up their free periods to be a teacher's assistant in the elementary school. This is quite an experience, both rewarding and baffling at times.

The two major projects of the SAE are performing services for the small children at the Easter Day Care Center. At Christmas, members take stockings, treats, and plenty of carolers. At Easter, SAE has a bright pink bunny to arrive with treats for all the children.

For teachers, the SAE holds a REHS Teachers' Treat (top right) in October. The elementary teachers who have SAE assistants are honored with a tea at the end of school.

August 27-RE 12, Carver 26. Raleigh Egypt opened their season with a disheartening loss to Carver. Of the two touchdowns one was made on a pass from ROBERT SIMMONS to BUBBA EDISON.

Sept. 3 - RE 22, Craigmont 6. The mighty Pharaohs were sparked to victory against Craigmont. CHUCK GAULT motivated the Pharaoh offense by running for two touchdowns. TED SOWDER increased the Pharaoh score by running for another touchdown.

Sept. 10 - RE 7, Bartlett 17. The Panthers got lucky in their 17 to 7 win over our Pharaoh offense. Raleigh's touchdown was scored on a pass from ROBERT SIMMONS to DONALD JACKSON.

Sept. 17 - RE 14, Hillcrest 0. TED SOWDER starred that night by running for two Pharaoh touchdowns. This was Raleigh's first shut out of the season.

Sept. 23 - RE 22, Kingsbury 7. TED SOWDER sparked the Pharaoh offense in Raleigh's victory against Kingsbury by running for three touchdowns. The Pharaohs contributed a team effort.

Oct. 1 - RE 0, Whitehaven 22. The Pharaohs put up a good fight against the tigers which resulted in only our second league loss.

Oct. 15 - RE 55, Fairley 0. The Pharaohs were too strong for the Bulldogs, with JEFF WALKER and TED CURTIS making two touchdowns a piece and TED DOWDER, CHUCK GAULT, JIM YOUNG, and BILL WHITE each making one.

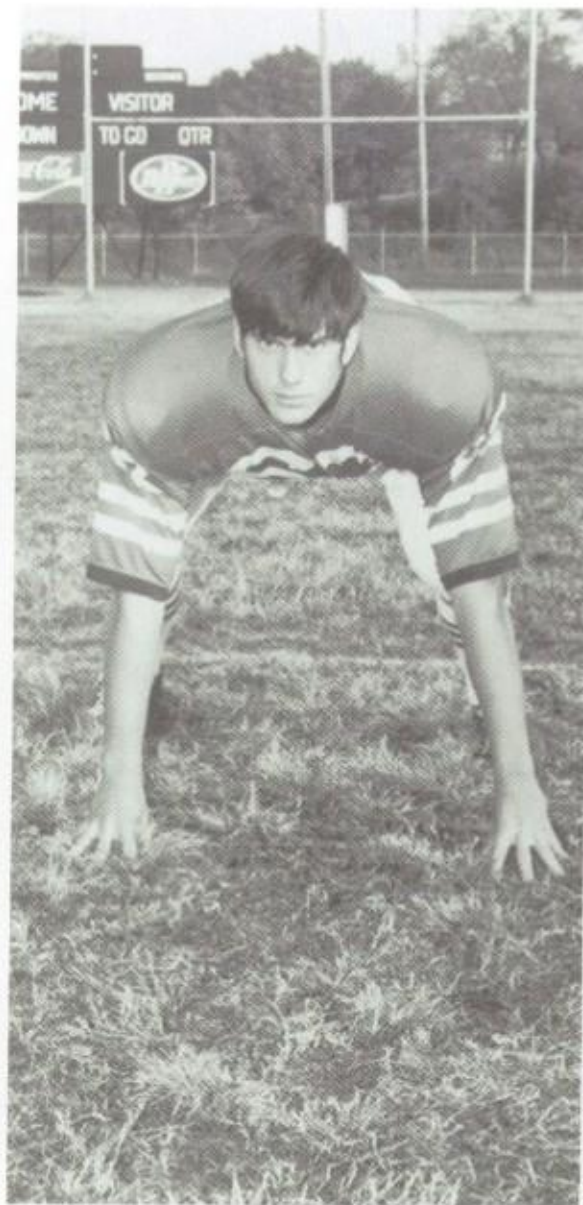

Oct. 22 - RE 20, Tech 8. With 1500 fans watching JEFF WALKER carried 23 times for 115 yards, including a 4-yard touchdown run and CHUCK GAULT rushed 12 times for 106 yards and also a 4-yard touchdown.

Oct. 29 - RE 8, Melrose 0. The Pharaohs' JEFF WALKER bulled over from the five in the third quarter for the game's only touchdown. TED CURTIS added the two-point conversion with a successful run.

Nov. 5 - RE 22, Westwood 36. Somehow Westwood sneaked by the Pharaohs this year by winning our last game of the season. The Pharaoh team all contributed an effort by making 22 points.

"I WON!"

MR. HUNTER and CINDI

"Did he say KRYSHA WALKER?"

"I'm going to enjoy this!"

The 1976 Raleigh Egypt Football Homecoming was a great success. Raleigh Egypt proudly defeated Tech, 20 to 8; thanks to our hardworking football team. Everyone joyfully released their helium balloons when the first touchdown was made in the first quarter. At halftime the band, ROTC, Drill Team and the Majorettes all did an excellent performance. Then tension began to build up when the new Homecoming Court was about to be announced. The 1975 Homecoming Queen, TERESA BARNES, had to give up her crown to the new Homecoming Queen, CINDI RICHARDS, who with no reluctance accepted the position. The alternates chosen were KRYSHA WALKER, a sophomore, and TERRY GARRETT, a freshman. After the game the fans attended the Homecoming Dance. There we found beautiful scenery, which was done by our own Raleigh Egypt students, and delicious refreshments, which were made by Raleigh Egypt mothers; and of course "Main Squeeze" whose fantastic music kept us all dancing until 1:00 a.m. Considering our glorious victory over Tech, our lovely new Homecoming Queen, and our fantastic dance, I believe that we can all honestly say that this has been one of the greatest Football Homecomings ever in the history of Raleigh Egypt.

Marie, Harry, Glynn Jonakin

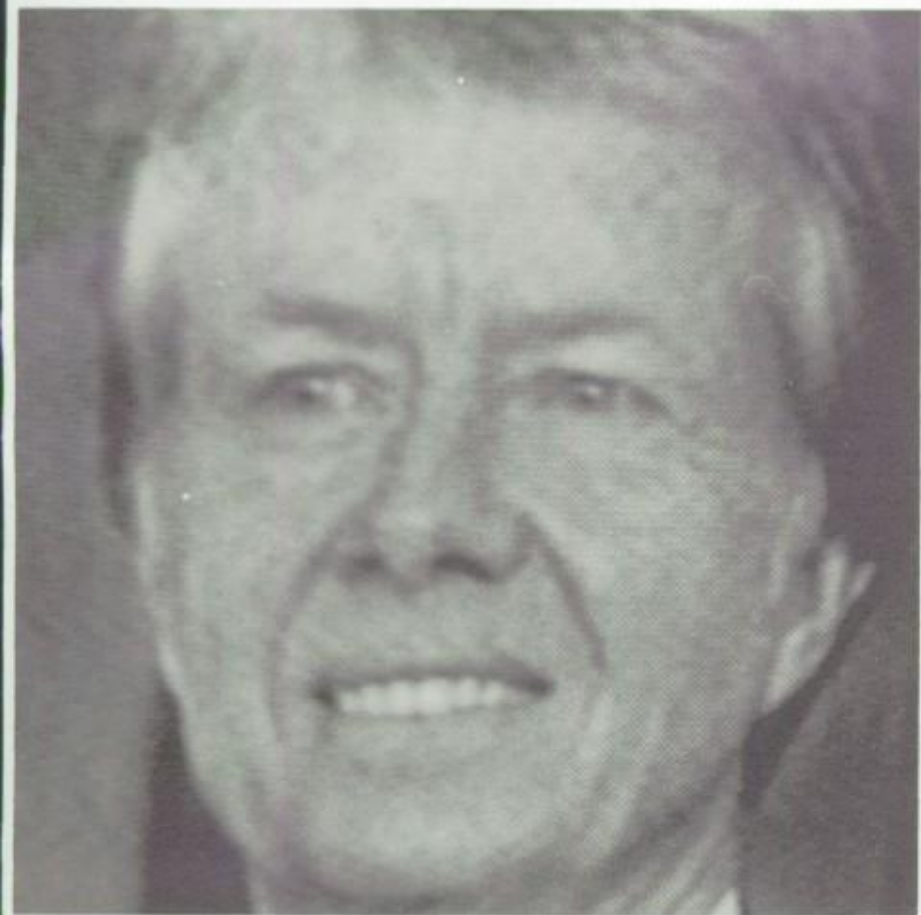

Each school day started out with homeroom, when many people talked with friends while others studied for tests. At least the students didn't have to grade the tests! Throughout the day, there was always time to talk to friends.

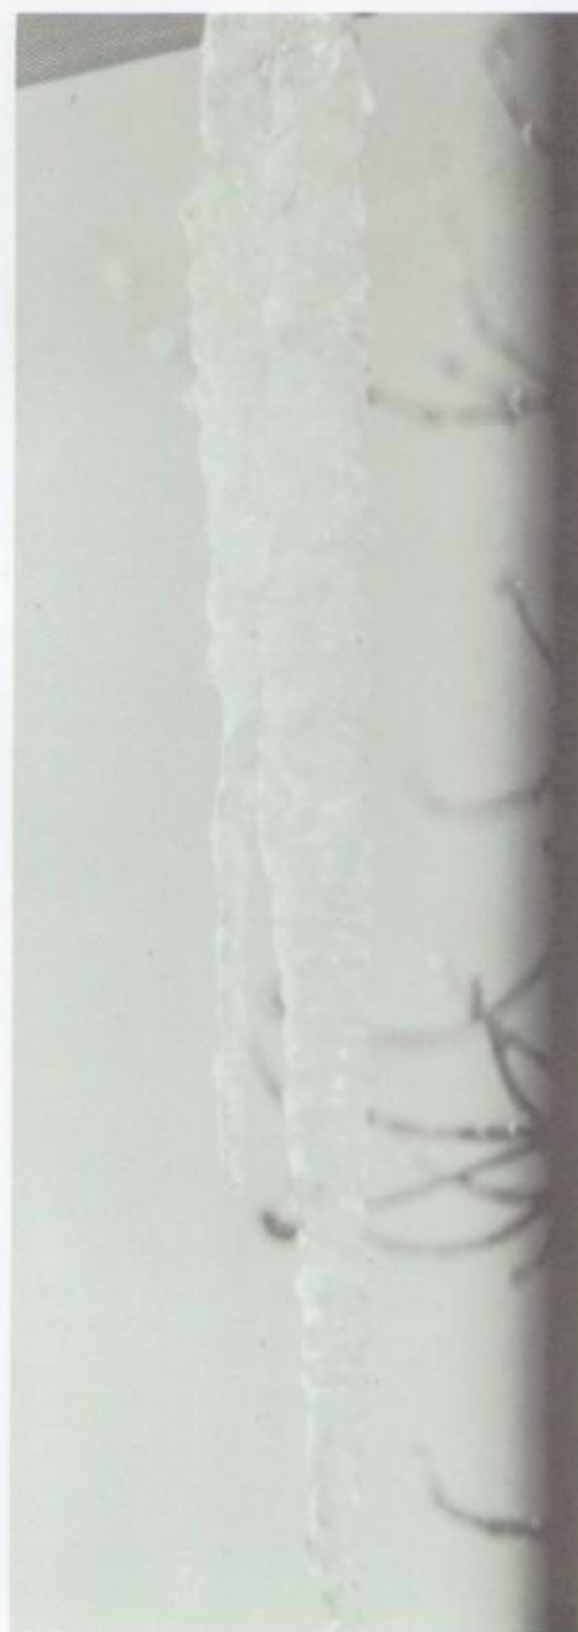

Besides classes there were pep rallies to attend, plays and talent competitions to see, and sports to watch. These events provided a relaxing break from normal school days.

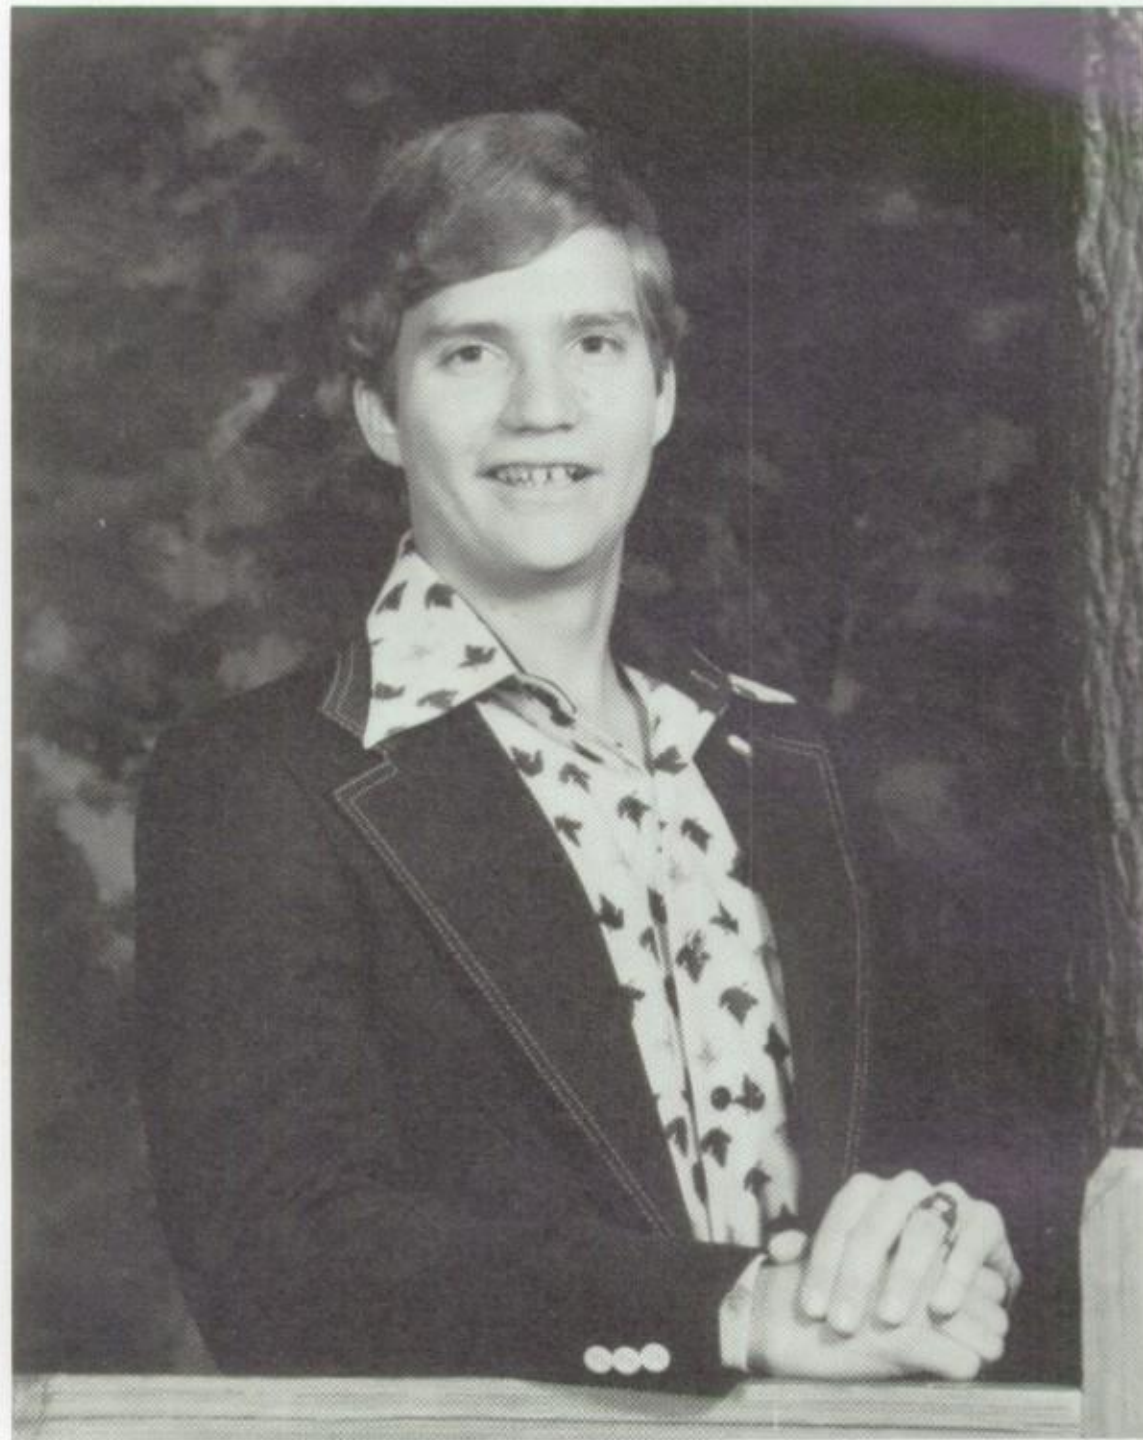

The winter of 76-77 was a harsh one. Many areas in the U.S. literally stopped functioning. Here in Memphis the students and teachers enjoyed several days of no school because of the snow.

Washington's political structure changed as the democrats' Jimmy Carter, a man from the "deep South", became the 39th President of the United States.

As everyone has passed through another year here at Raleigh-Egypt there are many memories to be treasured and shared with others. Many memories may pertain to only a few while others are shared by the whole school. Whatever your memories may be, I hope that they are conveyed to you through this edition of the Sphinx. Years from now you can take your annual from the shelf and relive a year at Raleigh-Egypt.

The annual staff has tried its best and has succeeded in bringing you a truly good publication. May the administration, faculty, and students enjoy it for many years to come.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to the staff: CINDI RICHARDS, SHEILA POWELL, MARSHA BASKIN, LISA GUY, DIANE NEAL, LISA BURLESON, CHRIS BATEMAN, LIZ CAMP, LYNN RUSSELL, JOANNE HARDESTY, AND PATTY REA. Also to the two sponsors, MRS. RICKS AND MRS. MARSHALL. The staff and I would like to express our deepest appreciation.

To all of you, the administration, faculty, and students, I can only wish the best in years to come.

Looking to the Future;

Glancing at the Past.

Best Wishes,

Mike Schiller
